"Child Participation: Together we Decide" Conference

ENCRO's forthcoming regional conference "Child Participation: Together we Decide" will be held on January 10th 2011 in Cairo. Policy experts, practitioners, researchers and representatives of institutions with child-participatory initiatives from the Middle Eastern, North African and Mediterranean regions will exchange and present evidence-based researches, case studies and successful practices. The Conference's debates will analyze child participation from different perspectives: state, civil society, media, school.

Children will also take part to the debates through an open discussion with policy makers and researchers about possible ways to enhance child participation in Egypt.

The conference will be held in Marriott Hotel, "Aida" Hall, at 9:30
